

Wojtek Golebiewski, B.A., CEBS, CFP

Senior Group Retirement Plan Consultant
HUB International
Vancouver, British Columbia

Wojtek Golebiewski is a senior group retirement plan consultant with HUB International's group retirement practice in Vancouver, British Columbia. He has spent the last fifteen years working in the group retirement industry. Prior to consulting, Golebiewski worked with one of Canada's largest pension providers as a relationship manager for Western Canada in the group retirement services division. He began his career in the group retirement industry working as a relationship manager with one of the largest credit unions in Canada. Through these positions, Golebiewski gained a thorough understanding of key aspects of plan management, fiduciary risk, securing plan compliance and improving participant outcomes. Throughout his career, he has worked closely with employees, employers, retirement committees, investment managers, pension regulators and plan providers. His current experience as a consultant helps him gain understanding and appreciation for all the moving pieces that work in sync to make an effective retirement plan. Golebiewski graduated with an economics degree from the University of Alberta, and is a Certified Financial Planner, Certified Employee Benefits Specialist and holds a Certificate in Retirement Strategy.