

Sarah Gurrib

Vice President of Business Development, Global People Solutions
Lockton Companies
Houston, Texas

As vice president of business development for the Global People Solutions practice at Lockton Companies, Sarah Gurrib has 15 years of experience in the benefits industry. In her current role, she is responsible for the strategic direction and management of new business development initiatives, focused on global benefits. She began her journey in Mauritius as an actuarial consultant before venturing across three continents to live and work abroad, enriching her understanding of diverse business landscapes. Currently in her second year at Lockton, Sarah was previously an assistant vice president on the client service side for the Global People Solutions practice. Prior to joining Lockton Companies, she spent 13 years with Aon in the U.S. and Mauritius. Sarah is fluent in four languages, which adds a touch of cultural richness to her personal and professional interactions.