

Jimmy Jean, CFA

Vice-President, Chief Economist and Strategist
Desjardins Group
Montreal, Quebec

Jimmy Jean is vice-president, chief economist and strategist for the Desjardins Group. He directs research, analysis and forecasting, and makes positioning recommendations on a variety of issues, including monetary policy, macroeconomic developments and the outlook for interest rates. Jean acts as a Desjardins spokesperson on economic news and major issues affecting the economy and financial markets. He holds a master's degree in applied economics from HEC Montréal as well as the CFA designation. Before joining Desjardins, Jean held the position of senior strategist at the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec. He also worked as an economist at Moody's, RBC and Statistics Canada.