

David A. McKay, Esq.

Healthcare Legal Counsel
Law Offices of David A. McKay LLC
Alpharetta, Georgia

Mr. McKay is a relentless advocate for simplifying the complexities of healthcare and earning the trust and respect of clients, colleagues, and adversaries. He has over 25 years' experience taking on challenges throughout the healthcare arena, including serving as the first general counsel for a start-up healthcare technology company; serving as co-lead counsel in nationwide ERISA litigation against one of the top three PBMs in the country; and representing states, municipalities, union funds, and independent pharmacies in PBM disputes and audits. Mr. McKay has drafted and negotiated a broad range of innovative healthcare contracts and has facilitated forensic audits of multimillion-dollar healthcare expenditures that secured substantial recoveries for his clients. Mr. McKay is a 1989 graduate of the Washington and Lee School of Law, where he served as Articles Editor of the Law Review, and he is a 1982 graduate of Hamilton College, magna cum laude. He is a member of the Georgia Bar, Virginia Bar, and D.C. Bar (inactive).