

Jenie Michael

Founder, Director of Operations & Development
Kaleidoscope Training Center
San Diego, California

Jenie Michael (they/them) is an experienced program manager dedicated to driving initiatives that improve the quality of life for individuals and communities. They have a proven track record of designing and implementing data-driven programs that deliver results, and they are passionate about using that skill to serve their communities. With degrees in communication studies and social entrepreneurship as well as socially conscious values, Jenie takes a unique approach to business management. Their focus is on maintaining a purpose-driven model that de-emphasizes profit margins and elevates social impact to the position of primary business responsibility.