

Saná Walker

Chief Girlfriend (CEO)

HR Girlfriends

San Diego, California

Saná Walker is the president & chief girlfriend of HR Girlfriends, an organization dedicated to advancing the careers and workplaces of women in HR. With over a decade of experience, she leads a community of over 11,000 HR decision makers, offering consulting, training, education and advocacy in human resources management. As a credentialed career strategist at The Career Help Desk, Saná has successfully guided professionals across industries to create next-level career plans, negotiate compensation and develop strategies to land their ideal jobs. Additionally, she is a highly recognized HR leader and DEI consultant with vast experience in managing HR departments, implementing HR strategies, coaching employees to success and supporting DEI goals. Saná holds a master's degree in human resources from The Catholic University of America and a SHRM-CP certification from the Society of Human Resource Management. A sought-after speaker, she addresses audiences on workplace culture, HR compliance and DEI topics.